

The next great experience for PJ Library families... Jewish Overnight Camp!

This summer receive up to $1000 to send your first-time camper to Jewish overnight summer camp.

A total of 500 grants are available on a first-come, first-served basis through PJ Goes to Camp! These grants of up to $1,000 will help PJ Library families pay for tuition for first-time campers who are attending nonprofit Jewish overnight camps.

Who is eligible?

- First-time campers who are
  - Current PJ Library subscribers who enrolled in the program on or before September 1, 2010
  - Siblings of currently eligible PJ Library subscribers
  - PJ Library alumni

When?

Summer 2011

Which camps are included?

- All 135+ nonprofit overnight Jewish camps in North America listed on the website of the Foundation for Jewish Camp.

How much are the grants for?

- $1,000 for a 3-or-more week session (North America)
- $700 for a 2-week session (only for camps located in the 13 Western States)

How do I apply for a PJ Goes to Camp grant?

- First register your child for camp. You can explore FJC's website to find a Jewish camp that best suits your family's needs and your child's interests. Sign up for PJ Goes to Camp at www.onehappycamper.org and enter the PJ Library referral code PJGTC20111A at the beginning of your online application.

Please note:

- You must complete one application per child.
- Some restrictions do apply:
  - Campers are required to attend at least a 19-day camp session at a camp anywhere in North America (or at least a 12-day session in the 13 Western States – AK, AZ, CA, CO, HI, ID, MT, NM, NV, OR, UT, WA, and WY).
  - If you have already received a grant through the www.onehappycamper.org website or any other $1,000 grant for summer 2011, you cannot combine it with PJ Goes to Camp.
  - Families who live in Western Massachusetts (Berkshire, Franklin, Hampden, and Hampshire counties) are not eligible for PJ Goes to Camp.

For answers to questions regarding PJ Goes to Camp or the online application, contact Kirstin Gadiel at Kirstin@hgf.org